Organizer Profile:

Central and Eastern European Conferences (CEE-C)

CEE-C Group is a joint initiative of three private-sector entities from Munich and Bratislava seeking to address European level issues from various perspectives, while striving to improve communication and best practice transfers between the member states of the European Union.

All the events organized in the framework of CEE-C Group are taking place in Bratislava, a hub connecting Western and Eastern Europe.

The CEE-C Group is not only hosting purely informative events. It also creates platforms for regional cross-border cooperation between stakeholders, academia, media and key policy makers.

Additional:  joins the CEE-C as external partner only for this Project.

NAUTILUS DJ s.r.o.

Nautilus DJ's main activity is organizing political, cultural and media related events covering a vast area of topics. We provide public relations and communications services for local key players and actors involved in Slovak day-to-day realities.

Nautilus DJ is the founder of the "Forum Trenčianske Teplice", a series of events hosting international representatives from business and politics. In the cultural field, we are involved in organizing the chamber music festival "Musical Summer Trenčianske Teplice, the oldest event in Europe of this kind.

With the creation of the CEE-C Group, Nautilus DJ committed itself to promote Bratislava as a European connection centre where international links and increasing international cooperation will help to share common EU ideas and prepare for facing new challenges

KOMIOS s.r.o.

KOMIOS The Institute for Cooperation in Central and Eastern Europe (KOMIOS) makes the link between undertakings and institutions, mainly from German-speaking countries, their (planned) activities and their respective partners in Central and Eastern Europe. The activities focus on Slovakian specific issues but also on other member countries of the European Union. KOMIOS is based in Bratislava, a communication bridge between Eastern and Western Europe.

Our service offer is mainly addressed to cross-border operating entities in the public and private sector (institutions, businesses, NGOs) and comprises project management, event management, EU funding consultancy and networking.

On a horizontal level, we are designing and implementing our own event projects, while on a vertical level we are working in the framework of international consortiums with international level partners.
